

Stamford Board of Realtors Sponsors Kids' Coat Drive

By Tom Renner

STAMFORD, CONN. -- For the second consecutive year, the Stamford Board of REALTORS® was the sole sponsor of the children's coat project in the Family Housing Program, at Inspirica - from homeless to home, 141 Franklin St., Stamford.

The Realtors delivered 83 children's coats to Lauren Dubinsky, Volunteer and HGC Manager, by Stamford Board of REALTORS® members John Pellegrino (President), and Len Schwartz, Terry LaPolice, and Debbie Ramnath (Community Outreach Committee).

"Because of the Stamford Board of REALTORS®, our children will be outfitted in new coats to face the winter months, and can be just like any other kid," Dubinsky said.

People interested in volunteering or donating to Inspirica - from homeless to home, can call (203) 388-0100.
