

Rian Drenzek, Chief Program Officer- Support Services

Rian Drenzek joined Inspirica in 2012 initially as the Director of Jumpstart Education. She successfully launched the Jumpstart to Employment Workshop Series which teaches valuable life and employment skills that are specific to Inspirica's unique population.

In 2015 Rian became the Director of the Jumpstart Career Program, which expanded her role to include vocational training and employment services. She now serves as the Chief Program Officer of Support Services which oversees the Early Childhood and Parenting Program, Children's Services, Retention, and the Jumpstart Career Program.

Rian graduated from Southern Connecticut State University with a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Secondary Education, History, and a minor in Psychology. She became certified as a Secondary and Adult Education teacher in the State of Connecticut. Rian has also worked for the Stamford Public Schools in both traditional and alternative classrooms for youth and continuing education adults.